

MOUNTAIN BROOK HISTORY CAMP

Catherine Pittman Smith, author of the "Images of America: Mountain Brook" is hosting the 2nd annual Mountain Brook History Camp in both Crestline & Mountain Brook Villages.

Camp Objective: to help Mountain Brook children learn about their local history in a FUN & ADVENTURESOME WAY. Highlights will include: the city's development & growth, its iconic leaders, and historic buildings in Crestline & Mountain Brook Villages.

Camp Activities: Brief history overview, scavenger hunt sleuth around Crestline & Mountain Brook Villages, and arts & crafts. Each child receives a signed copy of the "Mountain Brook" book, as well as a passport documenting their fun, and candy bags & shaved ice from SUGAR or a limeade from Gilchrist's.

Registration: Open to children ages 6-12. Each session is limited to 12 children. Please send in your registration form today. (If your child participated last year, register them for session II, III, or IV.) Camp Fee: $60 per child. $100 per child for two different sessions.

4 Available Sessions: 9am-12pm

Crestline - Mountain Brook City Hall

Session I, Tuesday, July 12

Session II, Wednesday, July 13

Mtn. Brook Village - Grand Bohemian Hotel

Session III, Thursday, July 14

Session IV, Friday, July 15

Mountain Brook History Camp & Scavenger Hunt Application

Child's Name: _____

Child's Age: _____ Grade 2016/17 _____

Address & Zip: _____

School: _____

Parent/Guardian Name: _____

Cell#: _____ Other #: _____

Email: _____

Session applying for:

_____ #1 Tuesday, July 12 _____ #2 Wednesday, July 13

_____ #3 Thursday, July 14 _____ #4 Friday, July 15

I hereby authorize the staff of Mountain Brook History Camp to act for me, according to their best judgment, in any medical emergency & hereby waive & release said persons from any & all liability for illness or accident while my child is attending camp. Please advise of allergies.

Parent/Guardian Signature

Make checks payable to Catherine Pittman Smith
31 Church Street Mountain Brook, AL 35213 492.3350
catherine@catherinepittmansmith.com

Sponsored by: SUGAR, the City of Mountain Brook, Grand Bohemian Hotel, & Gilchrist's